7th Henry Underwood left for a few weeks to go to work having made 273 times since July 1st Commencement of schd year.

13th W^m Barham returned to school after wandering about last week.

I want the Pupil Teacher & particularly the Senior Monitor to take a little more pains to see that each class is provided with all it wants and to be ready to receive their children by 9 o'clock.

The children deserve more attention on the Teachers part in this respect - as they take especial pains to be in school at proper time.

Annie Baily Junior Monitor is to see that the first bell is punctually rung a quarter before 9 o'clock.

16th Joseph ^{Newman} ~~ought~~ to be at school -

The Rector ^(Williman?) having noted my entry in the lay book of March 13th requested me to speak very seriously to the Ass^t Teacher and P. T. thereon, as further neglect might cause them to fall under the displeasure of H. M. I. I am happy to state that at this date I have had no occasion for further complaint.

I am also glad to be able to take this opportunity of recording that during my recent withdrawal from the school (for my confinement) when owing to a Mistress engaged for the time, disappointing me at the last moment, and the Rector's illness at the same time.

The sole management of the school was left very much to the care of these two young people I am able to testify to their great attention and good behaviour generally under somewhat trying circumstances.

The Mentor requests me to consider that he entirely endorses the above entry.

Let us gather up the sunbeams &
O happy English children!
God Save the Queen!

Oh call my brother back to me &
Rose of Lucerne

Be kind to thy Father &

Brightly brightly shines the sun

A hickory for one day did spy &

Now when summer's fruits are over &
The gleaner

January brings the snow

All hail gentle Spring!

"The School is in good working order, and the results of the examination are very creditable, although improvement in handwriting and Arithmetic is still desirable. Increased desk accomodation is required. In the attendance registers blanks must not be left after scholars' names, the children must be marked either as present or absent."
