

Alexander Inglysh

It is not known how long he was Rector nor when he was appointed, but there is a brass in his honour on the floor of the nave of the Church. The brass is believed to be one of only four in the country that include the Eucharistic robes in the brass.

