

Henry Victor Edwards

Appointed Rector 1996

Harry lived in Walberswick before being ordained in 1973, and will probably live there again when he retires! He has been Rector of the Campsea Ashe benefice since 1996. As well as being a Parish Priest he is a registered Psychotherapist, and is the Bishop's Adviser in the pastoral care of clergy and their families. He loves Church bells, and has seen the restoration and augmentation of bells in Reydon, Hacheston, Parham, and finally in Campsea Ashe. He is a vice president of the Suffolk Guild of Ringers.

He was born in 1948 and appointed Deacon in 1973, Priest a year later. His appointments have been as follows:
