

A SERVICE OF PRAYER FOR THE MORNING
(To be used each day, Monday to Saturday)

We unite as part of the family of God, separated by distance but united in common accord. Before you pray, you might like to light a candle and use the following words.

Give thanks to the Father, who has delivered us from the dominion of darkness and made us partakers in the inheritance of the saints in light.

We light this candle as a reminder that Jesus Christ is the light of the world. A light no darkness can quench

The candle is lit,

I weave a silence on to my lips
I weave a silence into my mind
I weave a silence within my heart
I close my ears to distractions
I close my eyes to attractions
I close my heart to temptations

The night has passed, and the day lies open before us; let us pray with one heart and mind.

Silence is kept.

As we rejoice in the gift of this new day, so may the light of your presence, O God, set our hearts on fire with love for you; now and for ever. Amen.

Prayers

Our Father, which art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done,
in earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer for each day

Lord God, your Son left the riches of heaven and became poor for our sake:
when we prosper save us from pride,
when we are needy save us from despair,
that we may trust in you alone;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

For 6th August: The Transfiguration of Our Lord.

Father in heaven, whose Son Jesus Christ was wonderfully transfigured before chosen witnesses upon the holy mountain, and spoke of the exodus he would accomplish at Jerusalem; give us strength so to hear his voice and bear our cross that in the world to come we may see him as he is; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and forever. Amen.

For those who are ill

God of compassion, be close to those who are ill, afraid or in isolation. In their loneliness, be their consolation; in their anxiety, be their hope; in their darkness, be their light; through him who suffered alone on the cross, but reigns with you in glory, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Our country

Almighty God, we give thanks for the many people who have responded to the call for help; for those retired people who have returned to work, and those who have volunteered to care for others.

Continue to stir in all of us a concern for our neighbour, that no one will be forgotten or neglected. As the crisis continues, so may the foundations of society be reset towards a more caring and compassionate community that cares for all. We pray in the name of Jesus, the good shepherd.

Almighty God, we pray for the leaders of nations at this time of crisis. Guide and direct them to consider the needs of all. May the nations unite to work together to bring about a solution to the Coronavirus. We also pray for those places in the world where there continues to be warfare and bloodshed. Comfort and support the victims who are injured or homeless, and strengthen the many agencies which bring aid. Amen.

For Economic Recovery:

Eternal Father, we are aware of the inequalities in our society. We pray that this time of pandemic will give us a determination to help the underprivileged and disadvantaged. We pray that there might be a political will to ensure that those who have been made redundant and those facing financial difficulty or collapse will not be left in distress. It is our hope that our country will be able to re-establish an economy which can provide for all, that elsewhere in the world the poor will not be further undermined, and that recovery will not bring exploitation. We pray that nations will unite to put greater emphasis on sharing and giving rather than economic status. Amen

For hospital staff and medical researchers

Gracious God, give skill, sympathy and resilience to all who are caring for the sick, and your wisdom to those searching for a cure. Strengthen them with your Spirit, that through their work many will be restored to health; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Ourselves

Loving God who has called us to serve you, may we be people of stillness and prayer, seeking to discern your purposes in the events around us. May we wait upon you before we rush into endless activities. Amen.

O gracious and holy Father, give us wisdom to perceive you, diligence to seek you, patience to wait for you, eyes to behold you, a heart to meditate upon you, and a life to proclaim you, through the power of the spirit of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Monday

Prayers about the outbreak

Keep us, good Lord, under the shadow of your mercy in this time of uncertainty and distress. Sustain and support the anxious and fearful, and lift up all who are brought low; that we may rejoice in your comfort knowing that nothing can separate us from your love in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Tuesday

For the world

At this time of crisis and turmoil throughout the world, we pray for world leaders, whose decisions and policies have the potential to impact the lives of millions of people - people who they may never meet, know, or be aware of, but whose lives are dependent upon the decisions of others. Father God, we pray that your spirit will fill our leaders' hearts and minds, that they might hear the voices of the poor, the oppressed, the down-trodden and the vulnerable. We pray that human rights and freedom may everywhere be respected. Help our leaders to see the impact of their actions, and the potential to release healing and hope through just policies.

Wednesday

Gracious God, give skill, sympathy and resilience to all who are caring for the sick, and your wisdom to those searching for a cure. Strengthen them with your Spirit, that through their work many will be restored to health; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lord Jesus Christ, you taught us to love our neighbour, and to care for those in need as if we were caring for you. In this time of anxiety, give us strength to comfort the fearful, to tend the sick, and to assure the isolated of our love, and your love, for your name's sake. Amen.

Thursday

We pray for our families and all who are close to us, that in these testing times they will be protected from harm. Give strength to all who are unable to visit families, children or grandchildren and give them a hug, that soon these simple pleasures will be allowed, meanwhile may they be comforted in love and lifted by hope. We give thanks for all our Doctors, Nurses, Carers and Volunteers who are working long, hard hours to tend those who are ill, in pain or in need of help. We ask this in Jesus' name.

Friday

For the bereaved

We pray for all who have lost their lives, for the bereaved and for all who have been unable to say goodbye to their loved ones. We give thanks that we have known them..... Father, Son and Holy Spirit grant us, with them a share in your eternal Kingdom. Amen.

For teachers and students

We pray for children and young people who are missing the support they normally receive from friends and teachers. Help us to remember, Lord, those children who are locked into unhappy and difficult situations. Those who are silenced, those who are beaten, those who are abused. We pray for the light of your love to shine where darkness and fear prevail.

We pray for children everywhere and, especially, for those children who are still unable to attend school and continue their education. We thank you for the parents who are trying hard to supervise home education and keep their children motivated but we remember those children who have no internet facilities and no one to help them in their learning. We pray that they will soon be able to return to some form of formal education so that the gap between those who are still learning and those who are not will begin to close.

The gospel

Gracious and merciful God, for our sake your Son became incarnate and suffered death upon the cross; have mercy on all who have not known you or who deny the faith of Christ crucified, and take from us all hardness of heart and contempt of your word; for the sake of our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

For the Christian community

We are not people of fear:
we are people of courage.
We are not people who protect our own safety:
we are people who protect our neighbours' safety.
We are not people of greed:
we are people of generosity.
We are your people God,
giving and loving,
wherever we are,
whatever it costs
For as long as it takes wherever you call us.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all, now and for evermore. Amen.

Some suggested prayers:

Merciful God, we entrust to your tender care those who are ill or in pain, knowing that whenever danger threatens your everlasting arms are there to hold them safe. Comfort and heal them, and restore them to health and strength;

through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, we give thanks for the many people who have responded to the call for help; for those retired people who have returned to work, and those who have volunteered to care for others.

Continue to stir in all of us a concern for our neighbour, that no one will be forgotten or neglected. As the crisis continues, so may the foundations of society be reset towards a more caring and compassionate community that cares for all. We pray in the name of Jesus, the good shepherd.

Jesus the anointed, teach us to honour those who need our help, and we shall give without condescension, and receive with humility.

Jesus, receive our worship. Show us how to give what we have, for nothing is too big or small for us to offer, or for you to use. Amen.

For Economic Recovery

Eternal Father, we are aware of the inequalities in our society. We pray that this time of pandemic will give us a determination to help the underprivileged and disadvantaged. We pray that there might be a political will to ensure that those who have been made redundant and those facing financial difficulty or collapse will not be left in distress. ### Tuesday

For teachers and students

We pray for young people in the middle of college and university courses who are struggling to keep up with their studies and face an uncertain future. Help them to remain motivated and to keep going with their course work. We thank you for the teachers and lecturers who are doing their best to support their students, trying to make sure they complete their studies and get the grades they deserve. We pray for young people due to start further education in September in these difficult and uncertain times.

Wednesday

Almighty God, we pray for the leaders of nations at this time of crisis. Guide and direct them to consider the needs of all. May the nations unite to work together to bring about a solution to the Coronavirus. We also pray for those places in the world where there continues to be warfare and bloodshed. Comfort and support the victims who are injured or homeless, and strengthen the many agencies which bring aid. Amen.

We pray for our local villages and the people who live in them.

Open our eyes to the challenges that they face and help us to find practical ways of giving our support. Open our ears to the words that they say as we listen, understand and respond to their words. Open our hearts to their joy, their frustration and their suffering so that we can stand by them in the good times and the bad times.

Thursday

The world

Lord Jesus Christ, Prince of Peace, we remember before you those places in the world where there is an absence of peace, where blood is shed in the pursuit of political gain. Stir in the hearts of men and women of violence the desire for peace; strengthen the work of those who bring aid to the injured and suffering, comfort and protect those who are in danger or have been made refugees. This we ask in your name. Amen.
